

GREAT SOUTHERN RAIL TRAIL

This 8.2km section of the trail winds its way through Black Spur, named after the creek that flows beneath.

Experience the history of the railway as you cross restored and rebuilt trestle bridges, originally constructed in the 1880s. Pass through lush fern gullies under a canopy of trees before taking in expansive views of the flats surrounding Tarwin River.

KOONWARRA

Koonwarra is a picturesque village known for its fresh produce, proud community spirit and sustainable living. Stop to savour some local fare, or pick up some fresh, seasonal produce at the Memorial Park Farmers' Market, held on the first Saturday of each month. The town is also an important site on Australia's fossil record with the Koonwarra Fossil Bed found by accident in 1961 and dating back to the early Cretaceous 115 million years ago.

MEENIYAN

Meeniyán is a buzzing country town, bursting with community pride and family-friendly spaces. Take your time exploring the main street with its range of unique shops, homely cafés and restaurants, and wander through the gallery, boasting the talents of artists near and far. Renowned for its acoustics, this historical Meeniyán Hall hosts a number of live acts throughout the year and is the town's centrepiece.
